

Beautiful Bella

Once upon a time, there was a beautiful girl called Bella who lived on the edge of a big city. Early one morning, she woke up and decided to go to Iris' house. Into her bag, she put a slice of pizza, a banana and a cupcake.

First, she walked over a bridge where she met a snake — a scary snake. a cheeky snake.

“I'm hungry,” said the snake. “What have you got in your bag?”

“I've got a slice of pizza, a banana,” but she kept the cupcake hidden.

“I'll have the pizza please,” said the cheeky snake.

So, Bella gave the snake the pizza and it ate it all up.

Next, she walked beside a pond where she met a naughty, cheerful monkey.

“I'm hungry,” said the cheerful monkey. “What have you got in your bag?”

“I've got a banana,” but she kept the cupcake hidden!

“I'll have the banana please,” said the monkey.

So, Bella gave the monkey the banana and it ate it all up.

After that, she walked to a crossroads where she realized she was ravenous. So, Bella took the cupcake out and she ate it all up. Then, she arrived at Iris' house.

Unfortunately, Iris was hungry and there was nothing left in Bella's bag. Luckily, Iris had an idea. Finally, they made a blueberry pie for dinner.

