

Beautiful Bella

Once upon a time, there was a tiny boy called Tim who lived on the edge of a big city. Early one morning, he woke up and decided to go to Lucas' house. Into his bag he put some fruits, a slice of bacon and a bag of chips.

First, he walked over a bridge where she met a jellyfish — an intelligent jellyfish, a fierce jellyfish. "I'm hungry," said the jellyfish. "What have you got in your bag?" "I've got some fruit, a slice of bacon," but he kept the bag of chips hidden. "I'll have the fruits please," said the jellyfish. So, Tim gave the fierce jellyfish the fruits and it ate them all up.

Next, he walked beside a pond where he met a cute, fluffy rabbit. "I'm hungry," said the cheerful monkey. "What have you got in your bag?" "I've got a slice of bacon," but he kept the bag of chips hidden! "I'll have the bacon please," said the rabbit. So, Tim gave the rabbit the bacon and it ate it all up.

After that, he walked to a crossroads where he realized he was ravenous. So, Tim took the bag of chips out and he ate it all up. Then, he arrived at Lucas' house.

Unfortunately, Lucas was hungry and there was nothing left in Tim's bag. Luckily, Lucas had an idea. Finally, they made fish and chips for dinner.

