

Sightseeing in Hong Kong

Dear Chris,

How are you?

I'm so happy that you're coming to Hong Kong soon. I visited some places in Hong Kong last week and I would like to share with you what I have done. I hope you find the places attractive.

On the first day, we went to The Peak in the morning. My friends and I went there by tram, which is a special transportation in Hong Kong. Then, we walked around and had great fun. We felt amazed and joyful.

On the second day, we went to Mong Kok to go shopping. We went to Mong Kok at three o'clock in the afternoon. We all went there by bus, which is a cheap and affordable ride in Hong Kong. We went there to go shopping and eat some famous dishes such as cha siu, siu mai, fish balls and egg waffles. We felt amazed by the taste of the food but we were a little upset about the item prices.

On the third day, we arrived at the Big Buddha in Lantau Island. We visited the Big Buddha at five o'clock in the evening. We went there by cable car which is a transportation that is in the air and connected to several wires. When we got there we had to climb two hundred and sixty eight stairs and we were taking photos left and right. We were so excited because the Buddha was fascinating but unfortunately, we had to leave early because we had to go to Ocean Park.

Finally, we arrived at Ocean Park in the evening. We got there by train which is fast and cheap. When we went there, there were so many games and animals, and we headed straight to the dolphin shows. While the dolphins were playing, we were
